TERRORIST ATTACK OF THE WEEK

Diversity is our terror

New York City is an incredibly diverse place. Here, an Uzbek Muslim immigrant in on a visa diversity lottery can run over Argentinian tourists, an Egyptian-Palestinian Muslim can shoot a Danish musician on the observation deck of the Empire State Building, Saudi Muslims can fly planes into the World Trade Center killing people from 77 countries, an Afghan Muslim can plant pressure cooker bombs in Chelsea, a Lebanese Muslim can open fire on a van of Jewish students and a Pakistani-Kuwaiti and Iraqi Muslim can bomb the World Trade Center.

Jihad Rears Its Head Again, with Democrats Enabling

If Saipov didn't bring his Muslim radicalism with him from Uzbekistan and was radicalized here, then how? At his Paterson, New Jersey mosque? Saipov, his wife, and his two kids occupy an apartment next to the mosque. Jihad Watch claims that the NYPD had the mosque under surveillance – until a "feminist Sharia Law advocate & liberal activist named Linda Sarsour" pressured the department to stop.

http://www.americanthinker.com/articles/2017/11/jihad_rears_its_head_again_with_democrats_enabling.html

NYPD Monitored Terrorist's Mosque but Sarsour Convinced then to stop

Back in 2014 the New York Police Department dropped a program that monitored potential suspects of Islamic extremism. Created in 2005, the program was pretty cut and dry: plain clothed detectives were sent out to mosques and gathering places for Muslims to see if anyone was pushing extremist rhetoric on the community.

The left's go-to talking point after these types of attacks is always "Islamophobia". If they can't blame guns [like Hillary and her calls to ban "silencers" after the Vegas attack], they'll distract from the tragedy by turning the tables and making victims out of the community that surrounds the attackers. Linda Sarsour made that same point in 2014 when she convinced the NYPD to stop investigating possible Islamic extremists. Yesterday millions of people in New York should have realized she was wrong. Hopefully they got the message.

Patrick Dunleavy with Tucker Carlson: Police Practice was Sacrificed for Political Correctness

Until yesterday afternoon probably against all odds, New York City had enjoyed 16 years without anyone being killed by Islamist violence. Could this latest bloodshed have been prevented with different law enforcement practices? You hate to ask that question, but it arises in this case because in 2005 the NYPD created a report, radicalization in the West is a homegrown threat it was called, and it laid out how U.S. Muslims could become radicalized. But that guide was subsequently denounced as Islamophobic. The De Blasio administration purged it in 2016 in response to a lawsuit by, you will be surprised, the ACLU.

It is taken for granted that my opposition to jihad terror and Sharia oppression makes me "far-right." What, exactly, does it mean to be "far-right"? It is meant to suggest that the person to whom the label is attached is akin to Hitler, the quintessential far-right figure. But Hitler was racist, anti-Semitic, genocidal, and against free society and the freedom of speech. I am against all racism, strongly pro-Israel, and a consistent proponent of societies that uphold the freedom of speech and the equality of rights of all before the law. So how can both Hitler and I be "far-right"?

It's just a smear term; if the CBC were a remotely responsible news agency, it would not use it.

CBC: From Noble Nationalist Institution to Deceitful Scrum-of-the-Earth Criminal by Dan Murray

CBC Reporter Kathleen Harris' article demonstrates once again that the CBC has betrayed its nationalist founders and their mission. It has joined forces with Trudeau who is as complete a fool and anti-nationalist as any politician that Canada has ever seen. With some exceptions, the CBC has degenerated into an anti-nationalist, parasitic, deceitful organization which deserves to be treated as the true scum of the earth and held in utter contempt.

Civil society must step up to counter hate

The only organization that has been consistently monitoring hate groups across Canada is Anti-Racist Canada (ARC), which has been an invaluable resource to media, law enforcement and activists. For the past 20 years, ARC has documented the activities of neo-Nazi groups and is now exposing the connections between today's anti-Muslim movement and established white supremacy groups. However, ARC is a blog and a passion project — it's under resourced and it misses things all the time.

Hey Bernie Farber – when are you going to have your comrades-in-arms at the ARC start investigating Mosques and the anti-Semitic hate speech spewed out every Friday afternoon – or Black Lives Matter – or ANTIFA who are nothing more than thugs. They are the hate groups. They are the ones who need to be investigated. And how about George Soros who funds them? You talk about hatred Bernie. Take a good hard look at the people you stand behind. You are the enemy – not the patriotic citizens who are trying to protect this country.

MOTION M-103

Oh Canada, Who Stands on Guard for Thee? - The Not-So-Hidden Agenda Behind Motion M-103

Canada's aggressive multiculturalism is backed by an official Multiculturalism Act. Religious accommodation has become the norm (the most grating example of which might be widespread Muslim prayer in allegedly secular public schools) and is often enforced by extrajudicial human rights tribunals whose liberal definition of hate and discrimination strike some as practically an invitation to "lawfare" or "jihad by court." It costs a complainant nothing to make an accusation through a human rights tribunal, even if the complaint is dismissed. The accused, in contrast, even if acquitted, is left holding the bag in terms of stress, time, and often large sums of money in legal fees. The weasel-word "Islamophobia," designed to conflate the criticism of Islam with discrimination against Muslims, is already touted as a great evil to be resisted at Canadian schools, colleges, universities, and other institutions. Motion M-103 gave it oxygen; a follow-up bill would give it wings. Indeed, Canada is low-hanging fruit for the stealth implementation of Sharia law in the West.

ISLAMOPHOBIA

Accepting the notion of 'Islamophobia' means the end of legitimate criticism of Islam. We cannot allow de facto blasphemy to destroy our liberal values.

The Left, committed to defending and empowering the most persecuted in society, has provided fresh soil for this conflation to sprout. To be more precise, it is a section of the Left who, employing post-modernist world views (seeing social phenomena in terms of power structures needing zero-sum game responses) and harbouring Western guilt, see redressing social inequities as so important that it can validly – and even necessarily – justify pulling the plug on so-called Western hegemony. Examples include denouncing liberal principles such as free speech.

What if Home Depot has refused to rent a truck to Sayfullo Saipov?

Imagine now that you were the clerk at Home Depot when Saipov came in to rent his truck. You notice his beard, his demeanor, his overall appearance. The vehicular jihad attacks in London, Paris, Berlin, Brussels, Nice, Jerusalem, Ohio State University and so many other places flash across your mind. It occurs to you that the man standing before you wanting to rent a truck could be intending to mow down non-Muslim pedestrians with it. You may even have heard about the Islamic State's directive to Muslims to use, for vehicular jihad attacks, exactly the kind of truck that Saipov wants to rent. But then you stop yourself. You admonish your inner voice. "You can't think this way," you tell yourself. It's racist. It's bigoted. It's Islamophobic.

IMMIGRATION-MIGRATION

FREEDOM OF SPEECH

Germany: Full Censorship Now Official

A new German law introducing state censorship on social media platforms came into effect on October 1, 2017. The new law requires social media platforms, such as Facebook, Twitter, and YouTube, to censor their users on behalf of the German state. Social media companies are obliged to delete or block any online "criminal offenses" such as libel, slander, defamation or incitement, within 24 hours of receipt of a user complaint -- regardless of whether or the content is accurate or not. Social media companies receive seven days for more complicated cases. If they fail to do so, the German government can fine them up to 50 million euros for failing to comply with the law.

TARIQ RAMADAN

Islam's Harvey Weinstein by Bruce Bawer

For years, close observers of Ramadan have been well aware that despite his pretense to moderation, he's a wolf in sheep's clothing. It's not really that hard to figure out. He openly supports sharia law. He openly supports female genital mutilation and the stoning of women. He's reportedly on the payroll of the terrorist-funding rulers of Qatar. Needless to say, Ayari has all my sympathy. I only hope that this traumatic chapter in her life will help her to understand that to free yourself from Salafism while continuing to identify as a Muslim is an act of folly – an example of sheer self-delusion. The simple, life-or-death lesson that Henda Ayari should take from her experience with Tariq Ramadan is, quite simply, that there is no freedom in Islam – especially for women – and that to pretend otherwise can be fatal.

Oxford allows accused rapist Tariq Ramadan to continue teaching: “We must protect Muslim students”

Director of the Middle East Centre Eugene Rogan said: “It’s not just about sexual violence. For some students it’s just another way for Europeans to gang up against a prominent Muslim intellectual. We must protect Muslim students who believe and trust in him, and protect that trust.” Apparently now at one of the foremost universities of the Western world, you can do essentially anything, commit any crime, and suffer no consequences, as long as disciplinary action against you might upset Muslims.

He also reveals that members of the leftwing hate group have traveled to Syria for training.

Why Israelis are Successful Fighting Terror

As the most persecuted people in history, Jews have a large amount of experience of living under threats to their very existence as a people and surviving them. The Israelis have used these experiences to chart a new path and develop a new mental strength and determination that "never again" will Jews timidly be led like a sheep to the slaughter. One of the most popular Hebrew expressions which echoes daily in each Israeli's mind is: "Ain Brera" which means "there is no other alternative." In other words, the Jews in Israel will fight for their survival with their backs to the wall or to the sea and with any means available and as long as it takes. After 2000 years of being the "wandering Jew," fleeing persecutions to other places is not an alternative.

Education Jihad: Promoting Islam in American Schools

Oil-rich Arab-Muslim nations, including Saudi Arabia and its Muslim Brotherhood cohorts, have used multiculturalism to target impressionable youths in our public schools, promote Islam, and advance Islamic political agendas. Under the subterfuge of promoting a multicultural educational environment, these agents have replaced time-honored educational materials of American ideals and historical perspectives with anti-American, anti-Israel, anti-Judeo-Christian, and pro-Islamic rhetoric.

When President Trump recently presented the 2018 budget, he recognized Title VI as a vehicle to promote anti-American, anti-Israel, and pro-Islamic propaganda and eliminated its funding. It remains to be seen if Congress implements his request and eliminates this insidious program.

Pamela Geller, Heroine

I would encourage everyone to go to her site, and look at her Facebook Page. And read her new book. It's the cutting edge of a real war. She has real information that is vital for us to win it. We can't let random people gun down gays in a night club, and we can't allow them to slaughter us with trucks. As she said tonight on Hannity, we have to defeat the ideology in order to win. And she is a genuine heroine in our day. A Joan of Arc, a combination of Esther and Deborah, and we need more like her. And we need to join her in order to win.

Dawa: Sowing the Seeds of Hate

"The term 'dawa' refers to activities carried out by Islamists to win adherents and enlist them in a campaign to impose sharia law on all societies. The ultimate goal of dawa is to destroy the political institutions of a free society and replace them with strict sharia." If Western leaders are unable to fathom the danger posed by organizations such as Tablighi Jamaat, iERA and ICNA, and, according to critics, others such as CAIR and ISNA -- let alone do something about it, instead of endlessly obsessing over "Islamophobia" -- Qaradawi could be proven right.

Despots are pushing the Arab world to become more secular

The region's authoritarians, who once tried to co-opt Islamists, now view them as the biggest threat to their rule. By curbing the influence of clerics they are also weakening checks on their own power. Still, many Arab leaders seem genuinely interested in moulding more secular and tolerant societies, even if their reforms do not extend to the political sphere. All of the change is bittersweet for the region's liberals, who want more political openness, too. But Arab leaders are acting much like Kemal Ataturk, Turkey's dictator in the early 20th century, who abolished the caliphate and sharia, and banned traditional garb, all while consolidating his own power.

The Muslim world must confront the underlying problems in Islamic theology

Muslim-majority countries also need to separate Mosque and State, to better allow freedom of expression and protect their religious minorities. Islam must be depoliticized: one's religious decisions should be a personal matter, rather than a force used to control the masses. Currently, the Muslim world is in a dark age, where freedom of thought is absent. The first step is to acknowledge that ISIS is indeed a Muslim problem that needs to be dealt with by Muslims. If we fail to do so, we risk seeing the lives of more people destroyed, both abroad and overseas.

While American Muslims 'Brace for Backlash,' Here Are the Real Victims of Islamic Terrorism

Don't let the media and Islam apologists spin this to deflect attention from where good and evil lie. The leftist news media and Islam apologists, as they do time and time again, have twisted this act of violent jihad entirely into the kneejerk narrative about the mythical, coming, anti-Muslim backlash which never, ever happens. In the perverse Progressive hierarchy of victimology, Muslim-Americans who have been proven over and over again to be in no danger in America (except from other Muslims like Saipov) are treated like the victims of terrorism while the corpses and wounded littering the Manhattan bike path are shrugged off as the dispensable sacrifices we choose to make to promote "diversity."
