Ideas do have Consequences

A lot of Muslim Canadians came here to get away from Islam and Islamists. Continuing to tolerate the presence of Muslim Brotherhood activists, Salafists and the agents of the Mullahs of Iran has been one of the most dysfunctional aspects of Canada's security and immigration policies.

The debate over the worth and future of Islam is going to grow, particularly in the Middle East. It behooves us to pay careful attention and watch developments closely... and keep a careful watch at the refugee claimants of the coming years. They may well be the people so many Muslim Canadians fled from in the first place.

Canada eyeing meeting with Iranian officials in Ottawa despite controversies

The federal government is making plans to meet with officials from the Iranian regime in Ottawa, despite friction over the Middle East state's deadly crackdown on peaceful protesters, repeated cyberattacks on the Canadian government and the death of at least one Canadian citizen in a Tehran jail.

Trudeau: 'We will not apologize' for valuing abortion over free speech

Liberal Prime Minister Justin Trudeau has defended Canada's new pro-abortion summer jobs grant attestation, arguing that his government's pro-abortion values take precedence over the beliefs of program participants. Even some pro-abortion members of Parliament have called the attestation a step too far. "There is nobody who believes that the Prime Minister is committed to free speech when he punishes all those in this country who do not agree with his personal point of view," Conservative leader Andrew Scheer said.

Controversial Islamic groups receive Canada Summer Jobs Grants

The Trudeau government has used the controversial Canada Summer Jobs Grant to fund an Islamic group with terror ties, and another with a history of anti-gay rhetoric, the Sun has learned. According to a government database listing recipients of the Canada Summer Jobs grant, both the Canada Arab Federation (CAF) and the Anatolia Islamic Centre have been approved for federal funding in 2018.

Get Ready For The Trudeau Liberals To Demonize Canadians Worried About The Border Crisis

According to Trudeau-appointed Senator Ratna Omidvar: "Let's be honest. The common thread of today's populism is anti-immigration. This populism legitimizes xenophobia and encourage the separation of people into "us" and "them". It creates a politics that sees the other not simply as different, but as different and therefor dangerous. Adversaries become enemies." Omidvar thinks that thousands of people crossing illegally isn't a crisis, but people talking about it is a crisis. Interesting 'logic.'

'Poor' asylum seekers dump expensive electronics by Candice Malcolm

Toronto Sun has found evidence that casts doubt on what the Trudeau government has been telling us about the flood of asylum seekers crossing into Canada on foot. We have been told that these refugees are poor migrants. Thousands of dollars of electronics and phones were found by the Toronto Sun, discarded near a popular illegal border crossing on Roxham Rd. in rural Quebec. A brand-new iPhone X, retailing between $1300 and $1600 — plus taxes — was found thrown into a ditch about a metre from the border.

Status of Women Canada: Paints a Misleading Portrait of Muslim Women by Barbara Kay

Canadians have been led to believe, not least by our Prime Minister, Canadian Muslims were enduring something approaching a scourge of bigotry. It was this perception that fueled Motion 103 and its call for more "research" into hate crimes against Muslims. Tapley's report makes it clear that this research has been done, and that Muslims have no evidence-based claim for a special "Day of Action" or for special treatment in general. In fact, at least where other cultures are concerned, Canadians can take pride in their general level of inclusivity.

Trudeau wants to let anyone with a driver's licence vote — like those 50,000 Syrian migrants

Justin Trudeau has introduced an extremely long and complicated new bill, called Bill C-76, to change our elections laws. Here's one key passage. Voters will require: "...one piece of identification issued by a Canadian government, whether federal, provincial or local, or an agency of that government, that contains a photograph of the elector and his or her name and address." Do you notice what's missing there? Being a citizen.

For two-and-a-half years, the Justin Trudeau government has been preoccupied with full-body immersion in politically correct pandering to native people, gender warriors, and eco-alarmists, in fiscal extravagance, collective apologies, and Peter Pan posturing in the world. An annual event that celebrates the “decision” of girls aged nine to 12 to wear the hijab for life was canceled in Quebec. We cannot protect our Canadian rights and freedoms if we allow them to be sold to the highest bidder...or highest donor. The colonization of Canada by Islam, the political arm of the Muslim faith, is getting a lot of help from Ottawa, too. So—do we really stand on guard for Canada, glorious and free? Or will we allow ourselves to become a colony in submission to the Caliphate? It's time to stand up with the CHP and all freedom-loving Canadians and oppose creeping Sharia. Otherwise, hold out your wrists, and accept your shackles.

FREEDOM OF SPEECH

Another cultural institution succumbs to Jordan Peterson hysteria by Barbara Kay

The Montreal Press Club finds it unconscionable, not to mention deeply ironic, that professionals in a prestigious cultural organization honouring writing should defer to a single troublemaker motivated by extreme bias rather than do the requisite due diligence that would have put them in possession of what should be for their organization the single pertinent fact about Jordan Peterson: he is disliked by people holding far-left views, but his writings, podcasts, videos and public appearances always fall well within the boundaries of civil discourse.

IMMIGRATION – THE HIJRAH

Migration Madness Syndrome by Dr. Bill Warner

To understand Islamic migration today, it is imperative to understand the concept of hijra. The hijra dates to the time of Mohammed when he left Mecca and moved to Medina where he became a warlord and politician. Mohammed's migration, or hijra, is so important to the success of Islam that it is the basis for the Islamic calendar. Hijra is a form of soft jihad and is quite effective for spreading Islam.

Dr. Bill Warner, PhD: Hijra, Islamic Migration

The purpose of migration is to start jihad. The purpose of jihad is to establish the Sharia.

Amid all the caravan posturing, the terrorists are still out there, trying to get in

The migrant caravan organizers may think they've seized the "narrative" in their bid to open the borders, using Central American migrants as their wedge, but Homeland Security boss Kirstjen Nielsen has put the matter in perspective. Speaking to Fox News, she warned that fifteen terrorists a day are trying to get into the United States one way or another. That's how many they know about. How many others, we don't know.

In Germany, 200 migrants attack police cars sent to deport one migrant, force police to flee

This story makes it clear: the police are not in charge in Germany. The migrants are. This is more of the poison fruit of Merkel's suicidal immigration policies. She has inundated Germany with migrants without any idea of how difficult, and indeed, well-nigh impossible, to assimilate them. Migrants who have nothing but contempt for the culture and authorities of their new land are not going to assimilate. The future is only going more incidents like this one.

Greece "overwhelmed" as Muslim migrants surge across Turkish border, situation "on verge of spinning out of control"

The Greeks believe that the sudden influx is no accident, and that the Turkish government — which has repeatedly threatened to allow millions of migrants to flood Europe if demands on money, visa-free travel, and progress on its EU membership application are not met — is deliberately loosening its borders in order to put pressure on European governments. The only hope left for all of Europe is a grassroots awakening of the people; their leaders have abandoned them.

ISIS "is driving mass migration from Africa to send jihadists into Europe," "Syria was bad, but wait until a region with 500 million people is destabilised"

In February, the Islamic State warned us that they would send half a million Muslim migrants into Europe — an army against the West. The hijrah. In May 2015, I further reported that the Islamic State was smuggling large numbers of Muslim "migrants" into Europe and making a fortune doing it. And in July 2015, I warned that hundreds of ISIS members planned on infiltrating Europe, together with masses of refugees from Libya, Syria, and Iraq. They did, and horror ensued: the savage attacks in Paris, Nice, Brussels, Berlin, mass rapes across the continent, while outdoor markets, music festivals, fairs, etc. are choice targets for jihad murder. Europe is forever changed, and not for the good.

High-ranking British pol gets the boot for...wanting to enforce immigration law

Amber Rudd, British Home Office secretary for almost two years, turned in her resignation on April 30. Her letter to the prime minister states that she "inadvertently misled the Members of Parliament." The real issue was related to her strict policies on treating illegal aliens. Maybe placing a guy with a Muslim background in the position of the Home Office secretary will help Britain in dealing with its numerous problems regarding illegal immigration.

Two prime ministers, two views

While he was prime minister, Tony Blair's government opened up the U.K. to increased Muslim immigration. Mr. Blair did that in part to further the myopic and misguided policy of promoting multiculturalism and currying favor with the politically correct European Union. What did Britons get in return from these misguided policies of increased Muslim immigration?? They got terrorism, hatred of Britain and the British way of life, and the growth of a huge homegrown Islamic boil that is bound to burst with dire consequences for the country.

What the assorted apologists for the Iran nuclear deal have failed to grasp is a simple distinction: the difference between suspicions and confirmation. At present it certainly seems likely that she was the victim of an honor killing. # REMEMBERING

The Third Anniversary of the Garland, Texas Free Speech Jihad Attacks by Pamela Geller

As for me, how am I commemorating? I am alive, that's how. Garland changed everything for my colleagues and me. Its personal toll has been enormous. It has affected our lives and our careers in innumerable ways, all of them negative. Our security costs are now astronomical. We cannot step outside without remembering that we are hunted, and at any time jihadis could strike at us.
