Justice Centre to appeal court ruling upholding Library's censorship of documentary film

The Justice Centre for Constitutional Freedoms (JCCF.ca) today announced that Madeline Weld will appeal the September 16 Divisional Court ruling in Weld v. Ottawa Public Library. The Notice of Motion for leave to appeal at the Ontario Court of Appeal has been filed. The Justice Centre represents Ms. Weld and Valerie Price Thomas in their challenge to the Ottawa Public Library's last-minute cancellation of a private viewing of the documentary film, "Killing Europe".

People's Party of Canada candidate mulls legal action against London Mosque over debate snub

A London federal election candidate, Salim Mansur, said he's considering taking action against the London Muslim Mosque after he wasn't invited to a candidates' debate on the weekend. We are engaged in a federal election and the tradition and the law requires that (candidates) have equal rights."

RCMP closely watching hateful online election chatter

The ingrained, self-centered smugness of political party officials does not allow them to recognize that “hateful online election chatter” is a signal that they are failing Canadians and we are fed up with their arrogant, snobbish refusal to heed our concerns. They are neither our betters nor superiors. They still pull on their pants one leg at a time.

So Much for Diversity: The Monochromatic Moderators of Monday’s Debate

Not only are all five moderators female, all are journalists – mainly broadcast journalists. That they all happen to be female shouldn’t matter, except that the monochromatic approach to moderators is so obviously a sop to modern identity politics. So that what counts is not what’s inside the person’s head or her character, but merely her gender. All five appear to be predictably “progressive”.

The Hands Down Winners of Last Night’s Canadian Leaders Debate

Was it Prime Minister Justin Trudeau, Conservative Leader Andrew Scheer, People’s Party of Canada Leader Maxime Bernier, Green Party Leader Elizabeth May, New Democrat Party (NDP) Leader Jagmeet Singh, or Bloc Québécois Leader Yves-François Blanchet? None of the above.

Last night’s winners were two blackballed reporters, from struggling independent Conservative sites, The Rebel’s Kean Bexte and Andrew Lawton from True North, who exposed Trudeau like the mainstream media could—but never—would.

<https://canadafreepress.com/article/the-hands-down-winners-of-last-nights-canadian-leaders-debate>

Trudeau grilled by journalists his attorney general tried to block from debate

Today was a great day for Canadian democracy and press freedom. After the Trudeau government-created Leaders' Debate Commission—in cahoots with the Parliamentary Press Gallery—tried to bar journalists from True North and The Rebel from being able to cover the official leadership debates, a judge forced them to give the journalists accreditation in an emergency hearing held hours before the English debate started.

<https://www.thepostmillennial.com/watch-trudeau-grilled-by-journalists-his-attorney-general-tried-to-block-from-debate/>

Here's my take on the evening's debate:

It was pitiful. As were the moderators. It reminded me of the first Republican debates when it opened up with Meghan Kelly attacking Trump viciously. So, Trump is President and Meghan is a has-been. Ha. They did exactly the same thing last night to Maxime. It was like they wanted to assassinate him right out of the gates.

I wanted to throw a brick at the TV screen. Every time that pantywaist Trudeau answered the question about the SNC Lavalin scandal with his tried and true "my duty is to protect jobs" could not one of the other 5 have said "well, what about jobs in Alberta"? In fact, I would have pointed out that he did in fact provide jobs for 50 or so prostitutes, but what about the rest of Canadians?

When that separatist Blanchet kept talking about the "nation" Quebec, why didn't anyone pounce on that? And his hogwash about the equalization payments – that they didn't appreciate receiving them with "strings attached" – what an ingrate he is when Quebec receives the largest share.

Elisabeth May is drinking from the Kool-Aid of the environmental/climate nonsense, attempting to be a little Saint Greta wannabe. And all the female commentators smiling at her and acting as if they were at a hen party

Jagmeet Singh believes that money falls from heaven like manna and so according to him, we would all have free housing, free education, free dental care, free medicine and free everything.

And as for Scheer, he is the biggest wolf in sheep's clothing of them all. And stupid. Not smart enough to have treated Bernier well and kept him in the party. Pandering to all the Islamists and breaking bread with those fire-breathing Imams makes my teeth hurt and not to mention his betrayal of Michael Cooper and Salim Mansur.

While Maxime had a tough row to hoe, at least he was honest and he didn't back down from his positions on supply management, getting out of the UN, scrapping Multiculturalism, lowering immigration and keeping our money at home. In fact, he was the really the only one who spoke about issues and his platform, rather than just attacking the others. I also liked his line on deficit spending: "Your Visa card is maxxed out". As well as strongly saying "you all talk about diversity but you never talk about diversity of IDEAS".

The Destruction of Alberta's Economy!

The continuing destruction of Alberta's economy is a central theme of this federal election campaign. Three federal political parties (Liberals, Greens and NDP) are planning a major economic upheaval for Alberta over the coming years and decades. Their No.1 Target is the Alberta oilsands, a world-scale resource that any other country would die for. They want it shut down by 2050 at the very latest.

Why Aren't Forestry Jobs as Important to Liberals as SNC Lavalin?

Thousands of Nova Scotia jobs are in jeopardy in the Northern Pulp mill in Pictou County closes down, which is certain to happen without the government giving the greenlight to a new treatment plant for the mill's effluent, which it wants to clean and discharge into the Northumberland Strait. The provincial and federal government haven't done anything but put up roadblocks for the company, which is trying to protect jobs and the environment with its plan.

Blackface Narcissus

In Canada, the news that the Prime Minister has spent half his adult life as the world's wokest mammy singer is just a blip in the day's news cycle, soon to be supplanted by a genuinely eye-catching scandal such as whether or not the Tory leader had a valid license from the Insurance Councils of Saskatchewan or the Canadian Association of Insurance Brokers back in 1997, or 1978, or whenever.

Canada: The Dumpster Fire

Canada and the USA should have thrived. Instead of that we give them away for stupid ideas of equality and empathy for refugees and downtrodden people from around the world. Forget our children, our ancestors and the things they fought and died for. Forget our culture, our history, our beliefs. Throw them all away for progressive ideology. Trudeau is a fine sock puppet for his globalist masters.

My Thoughts on Justin Trudeau with Dr. Gad Saad

Justin Trudeau is an utter disaster on many fronts and I say this not to be disrespectful or bombastic in any way. If I were to take in my 23 years of my professorial career, the absolute dumbest under-graduate student that I have ever had, that student would be approximately 100 time smarter than Justin Trudeau. Canada is one of the most important Western countries in the world. May we rid itself of the stain that is Justin Trudeau.

“The bridge has been lit in the past for the following causes: the promotion of sexual and gender diversity, LGBT Pride, various Islamic holidays and celebrations,” it said. “The bridge has also, ironically, been lit in association with International Pregnancy and Infant Loss Awareness Day and various disability awareness campaigns.” The documents say the expression of anti-abortion opinions is part of the diversity of expression in a free society and protected by the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

Islamic State propagandist has no regrets, yet wants to return to Canada, but not to be judged by Canadian law

“In terms of actually being a part of the Islamic State, I don’t regret that. The fact that I’m a prisoner doesn’t mean that I change my beliefs. It doesn’t mean that I change my position with regards to my religion, with regards to the Sharia.” Canadian authorities would be fools to let him back in, as he would just work for Sharia, at very least, in Canada. But they are fools, so they probably will let him back in.

Canada: Human Rights Tribunal awards $120,000 to Muslim who lied on job application and didn't get the job

Would Muhammad Haseeb be getting $120,000 if he weren't Muslim? And yet Muslims in Canada will still continue to claim that they are victims of "Islamophobia" and discrimination, even as they solidify their status as a protected class that must be catered to in all circumstances.

Two comments:

Well, all that this will do is ensure that companies avoid offering Muslims any job. (Which will then become the problem of the taxpayer, as they pay for Muslims to sit on the dole. We can never win with them.)

Yes, right you are. All Canadian companies will get this memo whatever you do ... don't interview Muslims for any job whatsoever! Muslim spells L*A*W*S*U*I*T.

Canada Goes Softly Authoritarian

This article by Wesley Smith about the "soft authoritarianism" in Canada describes how governments increasingly intrude on matters of belief and conscience. His article supports the testimony of some of the witnesses before the Heritage Committee on Motion M-103 who noted there was "systemic" discrimination in Canada – against those choosing to practice their Christian religion in areas that involved abortion, euthanasia and human sexuality. Morality now begins and ends with government.

C3RF Update – 11 October 2019

This week's update analyzes the fifth week of the Canadian election campaign and sees more "bread and circus" activities. Once again, accusations and distractions abound with West Point Grey Academy antics, padded resumes and fleets of gas-guzzling campaign airplanes. Not much in the way of substantive discussion of issues critical to the nation here. Indeed, it has become clear that all parties, save two, do not have the gravitas to wander far from the politically correct narratives that rule the day in Canada. This "chilling" of speech is the real ballot-box question and its diminishment is being accelerated by court decisions that erode the fundamental rights of individual citizens even as they grow the equality rights of "identifiable groups".

Political Interference in Upcoming Elections

A complaint was filed with the Commissioner of Canada Elections. It would appear there is a systemic problem within the New Democratic Party (NDP) of political interference. Recently, three NDP candidates, Peter Julian (MP), Sven Robinson and Christina Gower were successful in shutting down debates and removing a Conservative candidate. The attacks targeted leaders of the church and Christians and were in violation of the Elections Act, Charter of Rights and the Criminal Code.

THE ENVIRONMENT

The Green 'New' Deal is the Old Agenda 21

Like the current clown-car group of Democrat presidential candidates and Hollywood liberals who fly private jets to climate conferences, Thunberg's fossil-fuel supported stunt was not about climate and not about real sacrifice; it is about creating a climate of fear. It is the direct descendant of the mother of all sustainable development plans known as Agenda 21. It was about shaming the Industrial Revolution and capitalism, things which have reduced planetary poverty to historic lows and fueled technologies that have raised the global standard of living to historic highs that more people than ever before share in.

'Gift to climate alarmists' exposes global warming junk science in 12 minutes

Recently, I viewed a 12-minute YouTube video by Tony Heller, released 9/20/2019. He described it as "my gift to climate alarmists" and added: "This is my most concise expose of climate fraud. Please pass it around to everyone you know and your elected officials. The video is a little short, but cuts right to the heart of the matter." Be advised that the video is totally devoid of slick Hollywood production techniques, and the narration is monotone, but does cut to the heart of the matter.

THE LEFT

Surrendering to SPLC's Lazy Media Lemmings

SPLC's sweeping hate designations haven't just targeted Gabriel and me (two conservative women of color, by the way), but other speakers including Christians, Jews, Muslims and atheists. Cops, vets and government officials. Attorneys, doctors, academics, authors, journalists and activists. White, black, brown, multiracial, multiethnic, interfaith and intermarried. Has there ever been a more diverse universe of "white supremacists" on the planet? Gabriel was not given a chance to defend herself or educate Mar-a-Lago's cowering bureaucrats about the SPLC's corrupt culture of manufacturing hate fraud, raising millions off fear-mongering, stashing away gobs of money in offshore accounts and staving off internal complaints of racial and sexual harassment for decades.

They're Coming for Us

For years now, the hate-filled Leftist propaganda group known as the Southern Poverty Law Center (SPLC) has defamed our American Freedom Defense Initiative (AFDI), one of the foremost organizations fighting to preserve freedom in America today, as a "hate group." The smear has been irritating, but ultimately ineffective in stopping our work. Now, however, House Democrats are determined to change that: the Democrat-controlled House Ways and Means Committee has called for stripping tax-exempt status from 60 "hate groups," including AFDI.

Has the Time Come to Put Down Lawlessness, Insurrection and Rebellion? By David Solway

The attempt to impeach the president on no reasonable or substantial grounds is merely another frantic yet tenacious effort by the coup-obsessed Left to unravel the fabric of a constitutional republic. This is plainly the purpose behind the Democrat's infamous Green New Deal inspired by the U.N.'s Agendas 21 and 2030 which, under the guise of sustainable development, lay out a plan for the punitive regulation of reliable energy sources, the elimination of private property, redistribution of personal wealth, restriction of due process and, of course, the diminishment of American dynamism and prestige.

France's Homegrown Terrorism

The problem is that France has, for years, been in a state of denial about the proliferation of radical Islam. The Assault on the President is an Assault on America

Many Americans are wondering why Democrats, a few Romneycrats and the Marxist media are so full of hate for our President. Their hatred for the President is so great that they are willing to burn the country down to get rid of him. Their attempts to overthrow the President through lies and false accusations prove that they are not loyal to America and don't give a damn about the people. That shouldn't surprise anyone because self serving politicians have been selling America out for personal wealth and power for over a century.

ARTICLE OF THE WEEK:

The Humanitarian Hoax of Eternal Childhood: Killing America With Kindness - hoax 50

The globalist elite identified the essential difference between political ideologies: free market capitalism requires emotional growth and independence; collectivism requires eternal childhood and dependence. This was a political bonanza for the globalists and their tactical decision to collapse America from within using mass social engineering. The battle plan was to regress America's chronological adults to eternal childhood where they could be easily manipulated and controlled - it is revolution without bullets.

Regressed Americans could be seduced to willingly surrender their individual freedoms for free stuff, and the United States would finally collapse under globalist control. The globalists and their conspirators took direct aim at the three supporting pillars of American greatness and our constitutional republic: faith, flag, and family.

It took 60 years to undermine our traditional American values and make collectivism/socialism/communism fashionable. The 2020 Democrat candidate parade demonstrates the success of the globalist effort. How did they do it?

Gilead Resembles an Islamic Theocracy, not Trump's America by Phyllis Chesler

If you have read "The Handmaid's Tale" or are reading the new release "The Testaments" by Margaret Atwood, you MUST read this article. As Muslim women are being tortured, honor-murdered by their families, or stoned to death, sometimes for refusing to wear the veil, many Western multiculturally and politically correct post-colonial feminists are deconstructing and wearing the face veil and the head scarf as symbols of anti-racism and as a form of respect when they visit Muslim countries. Such feminists are also silencing and demonizing all other views in academic journals, in the media, and on feminist internet groups.

REMEMBERING

The Battle of Lepanto

The Battle of Lepanto is a Reminder and a Harbinger

October 7th marks the anniversary of the Battle of Lepanto in 1571, arguably the greatest upset in a naval battle in history, in which the West devastated Islamic forces. The memorial of the Battle of Lepanto should remind every American and liberty-loving human being that Islam's barbaric system must be rejected and repelled as has been done so many times in history by those still able to discern between good and evil.
