

“For far too long - all the way back to 1979, to be exact - nations have tolerated Iran’s destructive and destabilizing behavior in the Middle East and beyond. Those days are over. Iran has been the leading sponsor of terrorism, and their pursuit of nuclear weapons threatens the civilized world. We will never let that happen.”

~ Donald J. Trump ~

IRAN

Bye Bye Suleymani

Suleymani was not some run-of-the-mill terrorist. He was the worst of the worst; a man with more blood on his hands than even Osama bin Laden. Iraq, Lebanon, Yemen, Afghanistan, 9/11, Benghazi: all of them were his doing. But he was also the most respected and the only charismatic military leader to have emerged since the 1979 Islamist revolution in Iran. No other leader in Iran today even comes close to Suleymani for sheer star power.

The President Is Preventing a War, Not Starting One

Decisive action sent a strong message to Iran that its escalation of military force had gone too far. Iran got the message. Trump's critics bought into Iranian propaganda that claimed it was the United States that started this conflict by killing Soleimani. Nothing could have been further from the truth. For months Iran had been attacking America. Trump didn't start the fight; he ended it, just as he said he would do.

<https://thefederalist.com/2020/01/08/the-president-is-preventing-a-war-not-starting-one>

Iran is Already at War with the United States

President Trump's authorization of military action which killed Iran's Qud Force Commander will not START a war. It is the first retaliation by the United States in a war that has been waged against America for 40 years by Iran. The United States IS at war with Iran, and has been since 1979. Now it's time to finish it.

<https://www.understandingthethreat.com/iran-is-already-at-war-with-u-s/>

On Soleimani, President Trump Did the Right Thing

General Petraeus, also a former CIA director, said it best: "This is bigger than bin Laden, it's bigger than Baghdadi. Soleimani is the equivalent, in U.S. terms, of the CIA director, CENTCOM commander, JSOC commander, and presidential envoy for the region."

Democrats still delusional about Trump even after Qassem Soleimani death

In a sane country, which America used to be, there would be shared sober satisfaction over the elimination of Gen. Qassem Soleimani. The fact is that Soleimani deserved to meet his maker years ago but would be alive had he heeded warnings to stop spreading terror throughout the Middle East. He didn't and there should be no mourning in America over his death. None of this is to deny there are risks associated with such a dramatic mission.

Europe Appeasing Iran After Soleimani's Killing

Here is Tehran's track record in just the past few months: it attacked oil tankers in the UAE, seized a British tanker in the Strait of Hormuz, attacked Saudi Aramco oil facilities, kidnapped more Western nationals, killed hundreds of protesters in Iraq, killed more than 1,500 of its own people during the recent November demonstrations, shot down a U.S. drone, killed an American contractor and stormed the American embassy in Iraq. What did Europe's diplomacy do to sanction Iran for its nefarious actions? Nothing.

<https://www.investigativeproject.org/8253/europe-appeasing-iran-after-soleimani-killing>

And let's not forget:

Dems Forget Soleimani's Plot to Bomb Washington

Think about this for a moment. Hillary Clinton was Secretary of State, Eric Holder was attorney general, and Robert Mueller was FBI director when Iranian general and Quds Force commander Soleimani oversaw the planning of a terrorist attack on American soil that could have killed hundreds of Americans including some of the Washington elites. Soleimani was not reluctant to kill Americans on American soil. Soleimani was the war criminal here and he died the way he killed hundreds of America's young warriors -- without mercy.

On December 23, 2011, a federal district court in Manhattan entered a historic ruling that revealed new facts about Iran's support of al Qaeda in the 9/11 attacks. U.S. District Judge George B. Daniels ruled that Iran and Hezbollah materially and directly supported al Qaeda in the September 11, 2001 attacks and are legally responsible for damages to hundreds of family members of 9/11 victims who are plaintiffs in the case.

Video appears to show missile strike as Canada & UK say they have intel Iran shot down Ukrainian plane

Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau, whose country lost 63 citizens in the crash of Ukrainian International Airlines Flight 752 earlier this week, said Canada's intelligence, as well as intelligence provided by allies, shows that the commercial aircraft was shot down by an Iranian surface-to-air missile. He called for a thorough investigation into what caused the crash but would not provide additional details about the evidence and intelligence he cited.

Horror Flight 752 - and a Mullah Cover-Up

Iranian government officials are notorious dissemblers, incapable of truth telling. As the days pass, we can expect more lies to emerge from the mullah mouthpieces and propaganda elements of the state. Nevertheless, the evidence lays within the wreckage. The longer they deny aviation officials access to the site and the black boxes, the more credible the theory of a shutdown becomes. Iran must be compelled by the international community to provide full access to the site of the crash and the evidence. If it fails to do so, Iranian airliners and maritime vessels should be barred from entering the airspace and territorial waters of the civilized world.

REMEMBERING

The Charlie Hebdo slaughter on January 7, 2015 demonstrated, once again, the extent of Islamic barbarism. Let us end the temporizing, the caution, and the fear of offending. Islam is preparing our resting place. Western elites are carrying the coffin. It is time to decide: do we wish western culture to survive, or are we willing to surrender to savagery?

Every time a politician declares Islam a religion of peace, every time a news outlet chooses not to show a cartoon, every time a member of the intelligentsia castigates victims for 'provoking' Muslim rage, we concede that the religion of hate is winning this war.

Let us, instead, join the conflict, making it clear to the jihadists - whether of the overtly violent or 'stealth' variety - that we will defeat them. Let us mobilize our determination and rage. Let us make it clear to these thugs that the memory of their crimes will in the course of time provoke universal revilement while their victims will be honored as martyrs. Their movement and their blood-thirsty god will be consigned to the ash heap of history.

Je suis Charlie by Brendan O'Neill

When Stéphane Charbonnier was asked by the Associated Press in 2012 why he thought it was acceptable to depict Muhammad in a derogatory fashion, he said:

‘Muhammad isn’t sacred to me. I live under French law, not Koranic law.’

‘Five years on, our response to the Charlie Hebdo massacre must be to defend freedom of speech for everyone. For every blasphemer, every unorthodox thinker, every un-PC cartoonist, every offensive comic, every free-wheeling politician, and every citizen who wants to make fun of religion or oppose mass immigration or say that people with penises are not women and never will be. There should be worldwide events to mark Charlie Hebdo Day today. That there aren’t reveals how little backing freedom of speech now has in political circles. Let’s change this so that on the tenth anniversary of this act of censorious and Islamist barbarism, people will gather to say once again: ‘Je suis Charlie.’

The Ghosts of Charlie Hebdo by Mark Steyn

What happened on January 7th 2015 was terrible. But our response to it made it more terrible and emboldened civilization's enemies. With respect to the late Charb, the choice is not between dying standing up or living on our knees - for those who choose to live on their knees will die there, too, cringing and craven.

CANADA

Is anyone in Canada going to say something about radical Islam?

Could you imagine if we lived in a country where just one major politician or media outlet had an ounce of courage? If we had a CPC leader who would have tweeted "Hey Salma, what does that sign behind you say?" or "Wait, isn't the ISNA under charitable suspension for terrorism? How did they get Federal funding?" maybe "Sirhaj Wahhaj? Is that the same Sirhaj Wahhaj involved in the 1993 plot to blow up the World Trade Center?"

Investigation concludes Warren Kinsella's Daisy Group did not break elections law

An investigation by the Commissioner of Canada Elections has concluded Warren Kinsella and his Daisy Group consulting firm did not violate the Canada Elections Act when it worked to "seek and destroy" People's Party of Canada Leader Maxime Bernier by portraying him and his supporters as racist. The Globe and Mail reported in October that the Conservative Party hired Mr. Kinsella's firm for an assignment called "Project Cactus" that aimed to tarnish the reputation of Mr. Bernier and his party and to keep Mr. Bernier out of the national leaders' debates.

Video from Canada: Toronto police threaten journalist for calling Soleimani a "terrorist"

This vigil for Qassem Soleimani was a picture-perfect warning of how mass and unvetted migration has brought to the West Muslims who openly advocate jihad terror in the public square. It doesn't help the case for Menzies that criticism of anything Islam is taboo in Canada, thanks to the Trudeau government. It is puzzling why many of these pro-regime thugs, posing as respectable citizens, are living anywhere but in Iran or in another Islamic state that aligns with their palpable hatred of Western interests.

But of course, Islamic supremacists seek to infiltrate and subjugate non-Muslim lands.

Here Comes the Flood: Justin Trudeau's Plan to Diversify Rural Canada with Foreign Immigrants

The goal of the Canadian government is to establish populations of non-Whites in select rural areas and small towns by carefully vetting thousands of immigrants to select the ones who are most likely to remain in those communities after gaining permanent residency. How Chinese Gangs Invaded Canada and How Canada's corrupt politicians Helped Them

Canadian diplomat Brian McAdam was posted at Canada's Hong Kong consulate between 1989-1993. He became Canada's immigration control officer in Hong Kong. He soon uncovered evidence of what he believed was a major scandal : Both Canadian and Chinese consular staff were selling visas to members of Hong Kong's and Mainland China's mafia as well as to Communist China's intelligence service. The price, he heard, ranged from $10,000 to $100,000 per visa. A seven-year investigation ensued. Seven RCMP investigators came and went.

C3RF Update – 10 January 2020

Happy New Year to all C3RF fans and followers and welcome to the first C3RF "Update" of 2020. It takes a look at the first few months of Canada's 43rd parliamentary session to better understand how it might unfold over the course of its minority mandate. In particular, how might the Charter Rights of individual Canadians be impacted as it progresses. By early accounts, it looks like the Liberal minority government will accelerate efforts to curtail free speech rights even as it usurps the legal rights of parents to protect and guide their own children. All of this is evident in their rush to criminalize "conversion therapy" through Bill S-202; an initiative that aims to remedy the self-declared victimization of an "identifiable group".

University students who dare to exercise freedom of speech on campuses are routinely being intimidated by far left groups. While professors push cultural Marxism and self-styled Antifa groups use violence to shut down free speech, university administrations capitulate. However, in British Columbia some students are taking action to defend their constitutional rights, and we need to support them! Please join us in sending Premier Horgan a letter urging that he follow the example of Ontario's Premier Ford and Alberta's Premier Kenney by introducing a "Free Speech Policy".

Antifa Violence Talk Cancelled Due to ... Threat of Antifa Violence

The Justice Centre for Constitutional Freedoms (JCCF) demanded a reinstatement of the event in a letter to UBC president Santa Ono. "It is an alarming betrayal of the foundational pillar of higher education—the freedom of thought, belief, opinion, and expression. Furthermore, it signals automatic acquiescence to the 'heckler's veto,' which will embolden threats from those who oppose the very notion of free expression said Marty Moore, a JCCF lawyer.

The Coming Second Civil War

Left-wing thugs have been engaging in violence and threats of violence with impunity. They shut down speakers at colleges; block highways, bridges, and airport terminals; take over college buildings and offices; occupy state capitols; and terrorize individuals in restaurants and at their homes. Antifa are almost never stopped, arrested, or punished. Police are reduced to spectators as they watch these mobs loot stores, smash windows, and occupy state capitols. Mayors, police chiefs, and college presidents seem to have no interest in stopping the violence. America is no longer a nation state and neither is Canada. We are more akin to consumer zones.

Pakistani Blasphemy Case Exposes Islamist Free Speech Hypocrisy

Each death, each blasphemy allegation, is a human and civil rights violation. We can't say that things would change if American Islamists applied the same outrage they had for Khashoggi's murder to Hafeez's case, or Badawi's. But the blatant Islamist hypocrisy on human rights reveals CAIR and other Islamist groups are not "civil rights" groups as they are described in the New York Times and other mainstream media, but are front groups for radical Islam.

THE ENVIRONMENT

Another Expensive Solar Scheme Bites the Dust

The purveyors of solar energy are working overtime to spin the now official failure of the Crescent Dunes thermal solar plant in central Nevada. The contracts to purchase the electricity from the constantly broken plant will be voided. Bloomberg Businessweek claims that Crescent Dunes was obsoleted by technological advances in the form of photovoltaic based solar plants. That is nonsense and misses the whole point of the Crescent Dunes project. It also misses the reality that all utility-scale solar is a failure — not marginal, not growing into being practical, but a total and complete failure.

The disastrous fires in Australia are man-caused, but they're not climate change

The Green policies led inexorably to the primary cause behind all the fires: arson. Since November, Australia has arrested 183 people for starting the raging fires. ANTI-SEMITISM

Addressing Islam's role in rising urban black anti-Semitism.

Bill DeBlasio insists that Trump's rhetoric and growing white supremacy are the cause for the increase in the number and intensity of anti-Semitic attacks in New York City and surrounding communities. Like DeBlasio, Democrat Jews also try to deny this reality, for they find mystifying the fact that the black community they marched arm-in-arm with during the Civil Rights Movement should now turn on them. Their befuddlement and misdirection ignore the role that Islam plays in rising anti-Semitism among an activist segment of Leftist, urban blacks.

Western Feminists AWOL in Supporting Abused and Dissident Muslim Women by Phyllis Chesler

The hijab is a symbol of female subordination. When Western feminists fetishize it, they also cover for the extreme and barbaric abuse of women that often is hidden beneath the Islamic veil. Westerners support barbaric behaviors due to the influence of multi-cultural relativism, a commitment to tolerating even the intolerant, and as a statement against Western racism. In doing so, they betray their own feminist and humanitarian principles.

Is Europe Facing Another Decade of Jihad?

For most of Europe, the end of 2019 marks the close of a decade of jihad, of terrorist attacks in the streets, of bombers, shooters, and knife-wielding self-styled warriors rampaging restaurants and theaters, stadiums and concert halls, Christmas markets and kosher markets, trains, museums, magazine offices, and airports. According to a newly-released report from Dutch intelligence and security agency AIVD, 2020 will not bring with it an end to such attacks. Rather, more jihadist activity should be expected, not only in the Netherlands, but throughout Europe and the West.

Sobering Reflections on 2019: More Sobering Realities Coming in 2020

The past year saw the United States weather "Black Lives Matter"; "Antifa" riots; Muslim Sharia Law creeping up in city after city, La Raza competing more powerfully in the four states along the border with Mexico. We saw 59,000 homeless in Los Angeles; 11,000 homeless in San Francisco; 10,000 homeless in Denver; and over 13,000,000 children living below the poverty line in America. Yet, we give billions of dollars in foreign aid to countries with no merit.
