DON'T JUST LOVE CANADA - ACT FOR CANADA!

“Be glad of life because it gives you the chance to love and to work and to play and to look up at the stars – to be satisfied with your possessions but not contented with yourself until you have made the best of them – to despise nothing in the world except falsehood and meanness, and to fear nothing except cowardice – to be governed by your admirations rather than by your disgusts; to covet nothing that is your neighbour’s except his kindness of heart and gentleness of manners – to think seldom of your enemies, often of your friends and every day of Christ.”

CANADA

So much for the promised 'new framework' in Canada-China relations

It is perhaps no wonder, then, that a shabby, morally slovenly capitulation to Beijing, in the form of a proposed “prisoner swap,” Meng for the two Mikes – the greasy bargain that former prime minister Jean Chretien has been floating ever since December 2018 – is seriously entertained by certain sections of Canada’s punditry and foreign policy establishment.

It's the sort of ethical obscenity that the Trudeau government's paralysis has predictably invited, and the proposition came from the same quarter that has given Xi every reason to believe his hostage-taking stunt would be successful in the first place. It is no wonder Beijing is convinced that Canada can be pushed around in these ways.

WE Organization Paid Justin Trudeau's Mother & Brother Over $280,000

Regular Canadians, you and I, would be taken to the woodshed by the government for anything even close to this, and those in power must not be allowed to continue evading justice when they treat our tax dollars like their own personal playthings. We will need criminal investigations into this.

In today's episode of WE, it's all in the family by Rex Murphy

The WE business is a scandal. But it is a scandal within a bigger and more enduring one: the elimination of Parliament during this now near four-month long COVID-19 lockdown. We threw Parliament away. Or rather Trudeau, with the cynical compliance of NDP Leader Jagmeet Singh, his equally bespoke partner in this affair, threw Parliament away, put it under wraps, eviscerated it. As a result the Trudeau minority has had the least-challenged, most under-scrutinized, press-cosseted administration in decades. Money is being carted away by front-end loaders every morning when Trudeau descends the steps and enters the Tent of Commons to the huddle of scribes under its shade.

Letter to PM from one of our members:

Dear Prime Minister,

Re: The WE contract from which it is alleged you and your family have directly benefitted.

I wish you to be aware WE Conservatives and concerned taxpayers are quite capable of thinking, paying attention and doing math.

- It was published that 35,000 students could receive grants from $1,000 to a maximum of $5,000.
- You awarded $930,000,000 to an off-shore company.
- Why did management of the grants have to be administered by anyone other than Canadians right here in Canada?

Now to the nefarious question of how $930,000,000 is to be distributed, bearing in mind the maximum $5,000 to any one student.

$930,000,000 divided by 35,000 equals approximately $26,571/student.

35,000 multiplied by $5,000 equals $175,000,000 assuming all students received $5,000 which we know they would not.

$930,000,000 minus $175,000,000 equals $755,000,000

Would you please explain how you can justify $755,000,000 to manage and distribute $175,000,000?

The distribution cost would of course be much more, a higher percentage, noting not all students would receive the max $5,000.

Signed: KD - A concerned citizen and taxpayer.

CBSA can't locate 34,700 People up for Deportation

A report released on Wednesday found that the whereabouts of a staggering 34,700 people up for deportation are not known, and that the CBSA was not conducting regular attempts to locate them. According to the CBSA, failed asylum claimants make up the largest share of deportation orders. However, the January report said only a small fraction of those ordered to leave since 2017 have actually left.

BLM Toronto leader believes white people are sub-human, calls them 'genetic defects'

A social media post has resurfaced from a Black Lives Matter Toronto co-founder in which she apparently argues that white people are "sub-human" and are "recessive genetic defects." Yusra Khogali wrote the post on what appears to be her Facebook and attempted to use a genetic explanation involving melanin production to explain why white people are "defects." It has now gone viral after it was shared by scholar James Lindsay.

It Wasn't My Cancellation That Bothered Me. It Was the Cowardice of Those Who Let It Happen

As a columnist, I had strong editors to back me up. And I wrote at a time when you could speak your mind. In the last few years, by contrast, the window for even mildly controversial opinions has shrunk dramatically. It has shrunk the most at places that have traditionally prided themselves as champions of free expression. As ideological correctness becomes the modern currency of spiritual virtue, rational dissent has been cast as heresy.

C3RF Update – 10 July 2020

This week's update does the heavy lifting for a recalcitrant main-stream-media to report on the Canada Day Freedom Rally held on Parliament Hill on 01 July 2020. It did not matter that thousands of polite, law-abiding citizens flocked from all corners of the country to protest the diminishment of their individual, fundamental rights - the MSM was nowhere to be seen. It also did not matter that the Rally, in conjunction with its co-objective of submitting a formal "obstruction of justice" complaint against the Trudeau government with the United States Embassy and a burgeoning "WE" scandal, can be seen as an inflection point in the relationship between regular Canadian folk and a government that has ceased to represent them. It was all invisible to a media that, itself, has ceased to be democracy's watchdog.

BLACK LIVES MATTER

SLAVERY

When Did the Left First Go Woke? When They Betrayed Black Slaves

Dr. Jacobs, a human rights campaigner and Jewish activist, was the president and research director of the American Anti-Slavery Group, an organization at the forefront of the war against modern-day black slavery in Africa. By 1997, thanks to his relentless activism and that of the heroic black journalist Sam Cotton (may his memory be a blessing), the world was slowly coming to grips with a vile fact: that Arabs and Muslims own black men, women, and children as chattel property in Mauritania and Sudan — today. This is even more egregious when we see most of the left's characteristic inaction now that we know there is also Islamic slavery in Algeria, Libya, and Nigeria.

Pro-Black Lives Matter Corporations are Using Modern Day Slave Labor

Slavery existed throughout history. The 1619 Project is a lie, but China, unlike America, was built on slave labor. And China is expanding its colonial presence into Africa, building factories, and abusing the native population in a search of cheap labor. The products of that new black slavery in Africa, like the trade in slaves in Asia, will be sold by all the familiar brands now declaring that Black Lives Matter.

FREEDOM OF SPEECH

Free Speech is a Value, not a Right

We must not forget why open-ended discussion is a pillar of civilization. Free speech is not a right, it is something to be valued. Against the rising tide of cancelation, shame, and forced platitudes, we must articulate exactly what we mean when we say that free speech is necessary. When barbarians arrive at the gates, we need every intellectual weapon we can muster to defeat them.

Dozens of artists, writers and academics have signed an open letter decrying the weakening of public debate and warning that the free exchange of information and ideas is in jeopardy amid a rise in what they call "illiberalism." J.K. Rowling, Salman Rushdie and Margaret Atwood are among dozens of writers, artists and academics to argue against ideological conformity in an open letter in Harper's Magazine. The letter comes amid a debate over so-called cancel culture - where prominent people face attack for sharing controversial opinions.

Purifying Publishing by Bruce Bawer

Hachette staffers – largely lower-level Gen-Z brats – have said that they won't work on J.K. Rowling's forthcoming book because she's criticized transgender ideology. Hachette is the same house that, in response to workers outraged over unproven quarter-century-old sex-abuse allegations, canceled Woody Allen's about-to-be-published memoirs in March. Allen was never charged with any crime. No matter what you may think of Allen or his films, the whole ugly spectacle is just too reminiscent of the way things worked under Stalin and Mao. And it's all too representative, alas, of the atrocious attitudes of the rising generation of lockstep cancel-culture creeps who, like it or not, are well on their way to becoming our nation's official cultural gatekeepers.

AROUND THE WORLD

CHINA

Made In China by Linda Goudsmit

While Kissinger was busy congratulating himself on opening trade with China, and the globalists were busy congratulating themselves on the profitability of exploiting China's cheap labor markets, China was quietly pursuing its China Dream of becoming the premier global superpower by 2049, the 100 year anniversary of the founding of the People's Republic of China. The China Dream, a 2010 book written by military strategist Chinese Colonel Liu, advised against antagonizing the United States. "The competition between China and the United States will not take the form of a world war or a cold war. . . .It will be like a protracted 'marathon.' China's Hundred-Year Marathon will be a struggle for supremacy over economics, trade, currency, resources and geopolitical alignments."

The Beginning of the End of Whites in South Africa by Katie Hopkins

UNITED STATES

Obama Used National Security to Spy on Americans Opposed to Islamic Terrorists

Obama didn't just corrupt our national security system to wage war on his successor administration, he did it to protect the Islamist terrorist enemies of this country: Iran and the Muslim Brotherhood. Instead of fighting Islamic terrorists, Obama used the national security state to spy on their opponents, beginning with pro-Israel Americans, and concluding with Trump allies in a horrifying act of treason.

Donald Trump teaches history

He gave a succinct history lesson on each of the four figures carved into the mountain behind him. It was a wonderful thing to hear. Not the hostile, monochrome, ahistorical register in which all dead figures have lately come to be described, but a succinct biographical reminder of why George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln and Theodore Roosevelt came to be immortalized. Demonstrating that this is an inclusive, rather than an exclusionist story, his speech wove other heroes into this tradition. Trump talked of Dr Martin Luther King's urge to his fellow citizens 'not to rip down their heritage, but to live up to their heritage'. And, announcing a new national park to celebrate America's heroes, he listed some of the best: Frederick Douglass, Jesse Owens and Louis Armstrong. As he finished reeling off this genuinely diverse list of great people he added, 'Only America could have produced them all.'

Countering BioTerrorism 2020

Until China released by mistake or deliberately the Covid-19, causing a world pandemic, we focused on threats from the Jihadist movements that aim to destroy the infidels. These include the Islamic Republic of Iran, al Qaeda, Hamas, ISIS, and their ilk. Their aim is to annihilate and terrorize non-believers, destroy their cultures and devastate their economies. The hard-to-detect Covid-19 is now joined by a breakout of a new virulent strain of Hand, Foot, and Mouth disease. Jihadist groups declared the Covid-19 pathogen “one of Allah’s soldiers,” and called on their followers to catch these diseases and spread them among the unbelievers.

Why shouldn’t the curriculum be ‘Eurocentric’?

The statue of Sir Cecil Rhodes will likely fall. The reasons for his downfall have little to do with the truth about the past. The real Rhodes undoubtedly had a morally mixed record. But he was not South Africa’s Hitler, as the Rhodes Must Fall campaign has claimed. Far from being racist, he showed consistent sympathy for individual black Africans throughout his life. Nor did he attempt genocide against the Ndebele during their 1896 uprising — as activists have sometimes claimed — which might be suggested by the fact that the Ndebele tended his grave for decades. And they also need to hear that British ‘colonialism’ then spent over a century in deploying the Royal Navy to stop slave-ships crossing the Atlantic and Indian oceans, and in suppressing the Arab slave-trade across Africa. Maybe they’d even learn that the Empire supported action against Arab slavers in Nyasaland in the 1880s through the British South Africa Company. And guess who ran the BSAC? Cecil Rhodes.

Soviet-Style Sacking of Statues by Sanctimonious Stalinists

There is so much supported mob violence that other nations are shaking their collective heads not understanding what is happening to America, “the shining city on the hill” that everyone aspired to flee to when oppression and tyranny was too much in their countries. International enemies are laughing at us and even rejoicing.

Objective Naming with Dr. Bill Warner

To reason well you need to use the right words and names. Words with “fuzzy” meanings lead to fuzzy thinking. In dealing with Islam we need to use words that come from Islam—words found in the Koran, Sira and the Hadith. As an example, use the word “jihad”, not “terrorism”.

One of the advantages in using the right words is that it opens a new way to persuade others. When you use the right words, it causes new thoughts in the person you are talking to. This is one of my best lectures.

WHAT IS PRIVILEGE?

"What is privilege? Privilege is wearing $200 sneakers when you've never had a job. Privilege is wearing $300 Beats headphones while living on public assistance. Privilege is having a Smartphone with a data plan which you receive no bill for.

Privilege is living in public subsidized housing where you don't have a water bill, where rising property taxes and rents and energy costs have absolutely no effect on the amount of food you can put on your table.

Privilege is the ability to go march against and protest against anything that triggers you, without worry about calling out of work and the consequences that accompany such behavior.

"Privilege is having as many children as you want, regardless of your employment status, and be able to send them off to daycare or school you don't pay for.

"Privilege is sending your kids to school early for the before school programs and breakfast, and then keeping them there for the after school program... all at no cost to you... paid for by the people who DO HAVE TO DEAL WITH RISING TAXES AND COSTS! You know; us so-called 'PRIVILEGED' - the ones who pay while you TAKE TAKE TAKE!"
